Seed Descriptions

Premium Bird Seed Mix

High quality seed to attract and nourish a wide variety of wild birds. No fillers!

Black Oil Sunflower

A high energy and nutritious food source packed with protein and fat and leaves less waste than some other seeds. A wide range of birds eat sunflower seeds.

Birder's Secret Wild Finch Mix

A premium fine-textured seed mixture providing an inviting blend for colorful Goldfinches, Purple Finches, House Finches, Redpolls, and Pine Siskins.

Birder's Secret Woodpecker Mix

A hearty blend containing peanuts combined with tasty tree nuts, dehulled sunflower seed, sunflower chips, coarse cracked corn, berries and pumpkinseed.

Thistle/Niger Seed

Perfect for finches and other small-beaked birds. A high-energy source for these high-energy birds.

Raw Shelled Peanuts

Peanuts are the favorite food at the feeding station! Attract woodpeckers, blue jays, chickadees, titmice and nuthatches.

Safflower Seed

The cardinal's favorite food. Will not attract less desirable birds like starlings and grackles.
