Description: Buffalo Audubon is looking for nature-loving Summer Camp Counselors. To apply, you possess a love of the outdoors, an enthusiastic spirit, and patience in working with children ages 5-14. Our camp is located at beautiful Beaver Meadow Audubon Center in North Java, NY. Here, you'll guide children to explore our 384-acre wildlife sanctuary. Help "open young eyes" to the wonders of the natural world through fun, hands-on activities, and outdoor investigations. The camp welcomes a different age group each week of camp, ranging from grades K-8. Activities center on nature study with a bird-focused camp held for grades 6-8.

Requirements:

- Must be 18 years of age, prefer college students seeking summer employment.
- A love of working with children, grades K-8
- Experience working in camps is a plus,
- Ability to adhere to COVID-19 protocols developed for the camp
- Willingness to maintain camp areas with a high standard of cleanliness
- First Aid, CPR, and additional training may be required or beneficial
- Lifeguard Certification is a plus
- Physical ability to participate in activities, run, climb, and lift 40 lbs.
- Ability to pass a background check and proof of immunizations
- Must have own transportation
- Strong communication, interpersonal, and leadership skills

Camp Counselor Responsibilities:

- Design and implement the camp curriculum in coordination with the Camp Director.
- Lead and support campers as they participate in age-appropriate nature camp activities.
- Clean and maintain proper use of camp facilities and equipment.
- Report and record details, such as accidents or violations, to parents and the Camp Director.
- Participate in camp training from July 6-9, 2021.
